Dear Georgia Tech Alumni and Friends,

Magic and poetry, history and art—these themes are found in the picturesque countryside of the Netherlands. Discover both the renowned and the hidden parts of Holland and Belgium during our spring-visit tour celebrating the 400-year anniversary of Rembrandt, one of the world’s greatest artists. Enjoy the beauty of its floral parks and garden estates, experience the unique atmosphere of the world-renowned Muiderslot, admire the opulent manors and castles, and visit the historic city of Brussels. Holland and Belgium are home to some of Europe’s most charming destinations, from ancient stone walls and medieval towers to modern skyscrapers and international museums.

On this 11-day trip, you will experience:
- The picturesque waterways and canals of the Netherlands
- The historic city of Brussels
- The art of Rembrandt and Vermeer
- The tulip fields of Lisse
- The history of the Low Countries

This trip combines the security, ease and value of group travel with the independent spirit you enjoy. All pre-planning and arrangements will be handled by AHI, the leading provider of independent travel programs. AHI’s professional staff will take care of all details, allowing you to focus on enjoying your vacation. The trip includes round-trip airfare from a variety of gateway cities, all ground transportation, all meals, lodging, sightseeing and transfers. You will also have the option to choose your hotel accommodations, either in the heart of the city or at a more secluded location. In Holland, you will have the opportunity to explore the iconic windmills and tulip fields, while in Belgium, you will visit the bustling capital city of Brussels and its famous Grand Place.
